

Faculty of Architecture & Ekistics, Jamia Millia Islamia to teach Plumbing to Architecture students

The inauguration of the IPA students' chapter (I-073) was held on October 28th, 2022 at the FTK-CIT building, Jamia Millia Islamia, Delhi.

Padma Shri Prof. Najma Akhtar, Vice Chancellor, Jamia Millia Islamia, formally inaugurated the student chapter and addressed the gathering. Prof. Akhtar apprised the audience about the importance of Plumbing as a part of the Engineering and Design. She also emphasized that the start of this student Chapter will provide exposure to students on an important science discipline: Plumbing and Sanitation. This will also provide a link between the academics and the industry and expose students to state-of-the-art technology which is in line with National Education Policy 2020.

The event started with a welcome note from Prof. Qamar Irshad, Head – Department of Architecture, felicitated the dignitaries and welcomed the gathering. As a mark of invocation of the event, he introduced the Indian Plumbing Association to all the students. He congratulated all the students and presented the benefits of architecture and planning.

Mr. Mukesh Asija, Chairman IPA Delhi Chapter addressed IPA Delhi Executive members and gave thanks to Prof. Akhtar for being part of the event. He briefly introduced the activities of Indian Plumbing Association such as Plumbex, Indian Plumbing Professional League (IPPL), Indian Plumbing Conference (IPC). He also talked about other IPA student chapters across the country and the important role they are playing to disseminate plumbing education among budding engineering and architecture professionals.

A vote of thanks was proposed by HOD, Department of Architecture, Jamia Millia Islamia, and the session ended with a commemorative photo session. IPA Delhi Chapter Executive members and IPAHQ representatives also witnessed the event.
